

AMERICAN ROBIN

Coloring Page

The American Robin can be found in yards and gardens across North America. They enjoy eating earthworms right out of the ground in the morning and fruit in the afternoon. Robins have a round, orange chest. Their feathers are grey-brown in color. You can hear the Robin if you listen for their clear whistle. Female Robins often sleep in the nest while the male Robin goes out to gather.

