

BLACK-CROWNED NIGHT-HERON

Coloring Page

The Black Crowned Night Heron is most commonly found in wetlands across North America. They are most active at night finding food such as small fish to eat. The Black Crowned Night Heron are gray and black with a white plume on their head.

