

CATTLE EGRET

Coloring Page

The Cattle Egret, originally from Africa, first came to North America in 1953. Now found throughout North America, the Egret can be found at the feet of cattle or riding on their backs eating ticks. They also enjoy grasshoppers and other small animals. The Cattle Egret are small, white herons with a yellow bill and legs.

