

FERRUGINOUS HAWK

Coloring Page

The Ferruginous Hawk is the largest North American hawk and can be found in prairies or deserts in the West. The Ferruginous Hawk has a gray head, white underbelly and a rust-red color on its shoulder and legs. These hawks eat small mammals such as squirrels or prairie dogs. The Ferruginous Hawks fly with their wings in a "V" shape.

