

GREAT CRESTED FLYCATCHER

Coloring Page

Great Crested Flycatchers are red-dish-brown with a gray head and neck and a yellow belly. They are a common bird in eastern North America. They make their homes in woodlands and groves. Great Crested Flycatchers will fly after insects to eat and will fly into foliage looking for prey that are crawling on leaves. They also enjoy fruit and berries.

